LEADERSHIP

LEADERSHIP

GAYLE BENSON
GOVERNOR

Gayle Benson provides leadership for the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints as Governor, succeeding her husband, Tom Benson, who passed away on March 15, 2018, after purchasing the Saints in 1985 and the Pelicans franchise in 2012. The New Orleans native is an accomplished business professional and philanthropist with strong ties to the local community and a dedication to the growth and enhancement of the Gulf South region.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson worked together to build model NBA and NFL organizations, housed in state-of-the-art facilities at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, Smoothie King Center, and Caesars Superdome, while making a positive impact in the community.

Immediately upon Mr. and Mrs. Benson's purchase of the former Hornets franchise from the NBA in 2012, construction began on a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility to house the entire organization together, and the franchise was rebranded as the Pelicans. Through agreements with the State of Louisiana, the Smoothie King Center has undergone a complete renovation since the 2012 purchase, featuring a new center-hung HD scoreboard, which debuted in 2015, along with several additional fan upgrades. Because of the Bensons' commitment to the arena, NBA All-Star Weekend was awarded to New Orleans in 2014 and 2017, making the city one of just seven current NBA markets to host the mid-season event at least three times.

Active in league affairs, Mrs. Benson serves as a member of the NBA's Labor Relations Committee and was named to the NBA Foundation Board of Directors in 2020. As a board member, she is constantly an advocate for the city of New Orleans and the state of Louisiana. Since her 2020 addition, every distribution by the foundation has benefited New Orleans nonprofits. On the court, she oversaw a significant overhaul of the Pelicans in 2019 when she hired Executive VP of Basketball Operations David Griffin and committed to significant upgrades to the Ochsner Sports Performance Center's basketball facilities. Through the support of these organizational improvements by Mrs. Benson, combined with several important player acquisitions through the draft, free agency and trades and the hiring of Head Coach Willie Green, the Pelicans have established a strong foundation, reaching the 2023-24 playoffs. In 2025, Mrs. Benson hired Joe Dumars as Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations for the Pelicans.

In addition to running both an NBA and NFL franchise, Mrs. Benson led the relocation and renaming of the Pelicans G-League affiliate, the Birmingham Squadron. The name, which was announced in 2021, not only references Benson's NBA team (a Squadron is a group of Pelicans), but honors Alabama's military history. The decision to place the team in Birmingham came easily to Mrs. Benson, who has shown a perpetual effort to grow both the game of basketball and the Gulf South economy. In their inaugural season, the Squadron made the playoffs and ranked second in league attendance. Benson's commitment to the Birmingham community is apparent in her investments to various local organizations.

Under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Benson, the Saints have reached new heights since 2006, when they entrusted Executive-Vice President/General Manger Mickey Loomis to set the direction for the organization, responding by making important coaching hires and continually supplementing and upgrading the roster through the draft, free agency and trades. Since then, the franchise has reached its highest point of success, posting a 184-124 record from 2006-23, featuring 11 winning seasons, nine playoff berths, seven division titles, three NFC Championship appearances and the Super Bowl XLIV title. In 2025, Mrs. Benson and Loomis hired former Philadelphia Eagles Offensive Coordinator Kellen Moore as head coach, igniting a new era of Saints football. Under Mrs. Benson, Loomis and Moore, the Saints will continue their commitment to building a strong and exciting football team, primed to compete this season and into the future.

LEADERSHIP

Thanks to her leadership, Mrs. Benson contributed $180 million to the five-year, $560 million multi-phase transformation of the Caesars Superdome that made its debut for the 2024 Saints season and Super Bowl LIX, resulting in a world-class stadium with state-of-the-art amenities for the football team and their supportive fans. The Caesars Superdome has been sold out on a season ticket basis for every campaign since 2006, with a waiting list of over 73,000 and 192 consecutive sellouts for contests played at the venue. The Ochsner Sports Performance Center, one of the most cutting-edge practice facilities in the NBA, underwent significant renovations to enhance the overall experience in every facet of basketball operations in the summer of 2024.

Community investment and giving back have been hallmarks of Mr. and Mrs. Benson's ownership of the Pelicans and Saints. This tradition continues under the stewardship of Mrs. Benson, who shares her late husband's vision and passion for helping others. She has further enriched the New Orleans community through her support of causes in the health and wellness, cancer care, education, arts and faith-based sectors.

As dedicated corporate citizens, the Pelicans and Saints annually put millions of dollars back into the community in financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances and donations of goods and services. Mrs. Benson's philanthropic leadership has been recognized far and wide since she became Governor.

Mrs. Benson has always quickly responded and taken action to conditions that affect the local community adversely. Following the 2025 New Year's Day tragedy on Bourbon Street, funds were immediately used by the Greater New Orleans Foundation from a $1.25 Million donation over the summer to the foundation's "Gayle and Tom Benson Disaster Relief Fund" to support the victims and their families by providing each affected family the necessary resources and vital assistance needed. Following the terrorist attack, Mrs. Benson, the NFL Foundation and Ochsner Health immediately answered the call, collaborating on a $1.5 Million donation to further support the community's relief efforts for the victims.

With the COVID-19 pandemic and Hurricane Ida providing multiple challenges to the New Orleans area and its citizens over a two-year period, Mrs. Benson donated over $2 million, partnering with the Greater New Orleans Foundation to assist local organizations and individuals in need to help the region and its residents recover from difficult circumstances. In 2020, utilizing the platform of the Pelicans and Saints to harness the unifying power of sport to advance race relations across both the Gulf South and the country, she formed the Social Justice Leadership Alliance to advocate for issues of change in minority communities.

In 2014, Mrs. Benson was honored by the New Orleans Council for Community and Justice with its Weiss Award, recognizing achievement for exceptional civic and humanitarian contributions. In 2015, the couple were honored by the regional chapter of the Anti-Defamation League with the A.I. Botnick Torch of Liberty Award. In 2018, she and Mr. Benson (posthumously) were honored by two of the city's leading higher education institutions. They received a Dermot McGlinchey Lifetime Achievement Award from Tulane University, honoring those who have demonstrated service, volunteer involvement and commitment to Tulane and their hometown communities and were inducted into the University of New Orleans' Hall of Distinction.

In 2019, Mrs. Benson received several important honors. She was honored by Xavier University of Louisiana with the Sister Maris Stella "Women of Faith" Award and was recognized by the UNCF with the group's MASKED Award for her support of educational opportunities for all. Additionally, Mrs. Benson was honored by the Allstate Sugar Bowl Chapter of the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame with its Distinguished American Award. The National World War II Museum selected her as an American Spirit Medallion recipient. The Greater New Orleans Foundation also honored Mrs. Benson with the organization's Spark Plug Award, given to an individual whose philanthropy in the greater New Orleans community has been exemplary.

LEADERSHIP

In 2021, Mrs. Benson was presented by the University of Holy Cross with its Spes Unica Award, the educational institution's highest honor, based on her support of the university's mission to educate both the mind and heart. She was the Times-Picayune's 2021 Loving Cup award winner, an honor which has been presented since 1901 to men and women who have performed exemplary service to the community without expecting material recognition.

In 2022, Mrs. Benson was recognized by the local charity, Clover, as a co-recipient of the Reverend Beverley Warner Ward, for her extensive work with the non-profit whose mission is to educate children, strengthen families and build community. Mrs. Benson was honored by the American Cancer Society's Louisiana Chapter with their 2022 Heart & Soul Award for her constant support in the fight against cancer through the services provided to cancer patients, families and caregivers at Ochsner's Gayle and Tom Benson Cancer Center. She was also recognized by the Southeast Louisiana Council, Boy Scouts of America with their 2022 "Distinguished Citizen" Award.

In 2023, Mrs. Benson was honored as a "Louisiana Legend" by Louisiana Public Broadcasting for distinguishing herself in the sports field and through her philanthropy. Realizing the need for the commitment to people with disabilities by her sports organizations and business ventures, whether enhancing their fan experience or providing employment opportunities/support, she was selected for the 2023 Human Highlight Never Moment Award by the KultureCity organization. With Mrs. Benson's encouragement, the Saints became a founding partner of the HBCU Legacy Bowl all-star game held in New Orleans, establishing financial support for the contest and its week of events, which includes hosting a scouting combine for participants at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center and a career fair for both players and HBCU students. The career fair attracts over 100 regional and national employers to help provide opportunities and networking for HBCU students. In recognition of her support of the events, Mrs. Benson received the 2023 Black College Football Hall of Fame Founders Award. Mrs. Benson was also inducted into the Louisiana Center for Women in Government & Business (LCWGB) Hall of Fame alongside former Louisiana first lady, Donna Edwards. Mrs. Benson also received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the LCWGB, which recognized her remarkable achievements in business and her unwavering generosity toward various causes across the state of Louisiana.

In 2024, at Washington Mardi Gras, Mrs. Benson received the Humanitarian of the Century Award from U.S. Senator John Kennedy, which recognized her continuous philanthropic efforts throughout New Orleans, the state of Louisiana, and the Gulf South region. In November, Mr. and Mrs. Benson were inducted into the Greater New Orleans Sports Foundation Hall of Fame for their instrumental work in leading the efforts with the Sports Foundation to bring five Super Bowls, four NCAA Men's Final Fours, three NBA All-Star Games, and several other major sporting events to New Orleans. NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell was in attendance, introducing Mrs. Benson with the honor.

In 2025, Louisiana Senate President Cameron Henry appointed Mrs. Benson as President of the French Quarter Terrorism Attack Memorial Commission in recognition of her leadership in honoring the victims of the January 1, 2025 attacks and for her guidance in the vision, planning, and implementation of a permanent memorial to honor the victims, survivors, and all those impacted. Mrs. Benson was also honored with the New Orleans Police and Justice Foundation's (NOPJF) Honorary Crime Fighter Award, the Foundation's highest recognition, presented to individuals who have made extraordinary contributions to public safety, supported the mission of the New Orleans Police Department (NOPD), and demonstrated a deep commitment to building a safer New Orleans. She is only the third recipient of this award in the NOPJF's 30-year history. In August of 2025, Mrs. Benson was appointed by Commissioner Roger Goodell to serve as Chair of the NFL Legislative Committee, leading efforts to build a sustainable government relations strategy. In this role, Mrs. Benson is committed to ensuring the League remains at the forefront of policy discussions and legislative developments that impact its operations and long-term interests.

LEADERSHIP

In October of 2025, Mrs. Benson led the Saints' effort to finalize the Caesars Superdome lease extension agreement, a landmark initiative that secures the team's presence in New Orleans for decades and exemplifies her unwavering commitment to long-term investment, collaboration, and partnership with the city of New Orleans and State of Louisiana.

In addition to serving on the boards of several local educational institutions and the New Orleans Museum of Art, Mrs. Benson is also a member of the Audubon Commission, which oversees the Audubon Nature Institute.

Mrs. Benson has been a longtime trusted and valued member of the local Catholic community, reflecting her deep religious faith. She has worked tirelessly with the Archdiocese of New Orleans' Catholic Charities organization and its umbrella agencies that feature almost 50 programs and three affiliated ministries. These organizations deliver health and human services to those in need in the eight Southeast Louisiana parishes, which the Archdiocese serves, as well as food and nutrition services throughout the state. Mrs. Benson has worked closely with St. Louis Cathedral's Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) program. Currently, she is in the midst of leading an unprecedented effort to repair and restore the St. Louis Cathedral with the Our City, Our Cathedral campaign, which aims to restore the city's most iconic building after suffering from nearly two centuries of wear and tear, water damage and settling.

Mrs. Benson's support of the Catholic Church has been recognized numerous times locally, nationally and on an international level. In 2002, she received the Medal of the Order of St. Louis Award for dedication to the Church. In 2010, she became an Honorary Oblate of Mary Immaculate and in recognition of longstanding support of Catholic education, Mr. and Mrs. Benson received the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Award from the National Catholic Educational Association (NCEA). In 2012, Mr. and Mrs. Benson received from Pope Benedict XVI the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice award, which recognizes outstanding service to the Church and the Pontiff, the highest Papal award granted to a lay person. She holds a leadership role after being inducted as Dame Commander with Star in the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem and is a commander of the Order of St. Lazarus, a confraternity of Christian faithful who profess their commitment to Jesus Christ.

In February 2024, she was recognized by FADICA, the leading Catholic philanthropic network of foundations and donors supporting Catholic activities and initiatives, with the Mary Magdalene Medal of Service, which recognizes someone who shares their time, talent and treasure with the Church. She was also the recipient of the Catholic Community Foundation's 2024 St. John Paul II Award, a prestigious honor presented by the Archbishop and the foundation to an outstanding Catholic layperson who exhibits unwavering faith, inspirational generosity, and a deep commitment to the New Orleans community. In December, Mrs. Benson was also honored by the Catholic Near East Welfare Association (CNEWA), a papal agency for humanitarian and pastoral support, at their annual "Healing & Hope Gala" in New York City with its Faith & Culture Award, annually given to a prominent advocate for the presence of faith in culture.

Mrs. Benson began her professional career in 1968 as a manager for a noted New York-based jeweler. She was responsible for overseeing and managing the daily operation of over 40 sales associates. She then branched out into real estate development, which allowed her to successfully integrate her passion for interior design with property management. Her first real estate transaction occurred in 1978 when she purchased a home in New Orleans's Irish Channel and then sold the property eight months later after extensive restoration. She would go on to purchase, manage and eventually sell numerous properties, primarily in the city's Uptown district.

In 1975, Mrs. Benson began a 30-year design industry career where she achieved tremendous success. Throughout the course of her interior design career, she was recognized with numerous professional awards and served as an inaugural member on the Louisiana State Board of Licensing for Interior Designers for four years. She directed numerous major design efforts with her clients, including the Caesars Superdome (formerly Louisiana Superdome and Mercedes-Benz Superdome), several of the city's most prestigious hotels, local supermarket chains, automobile dealerships, yachts and many others.

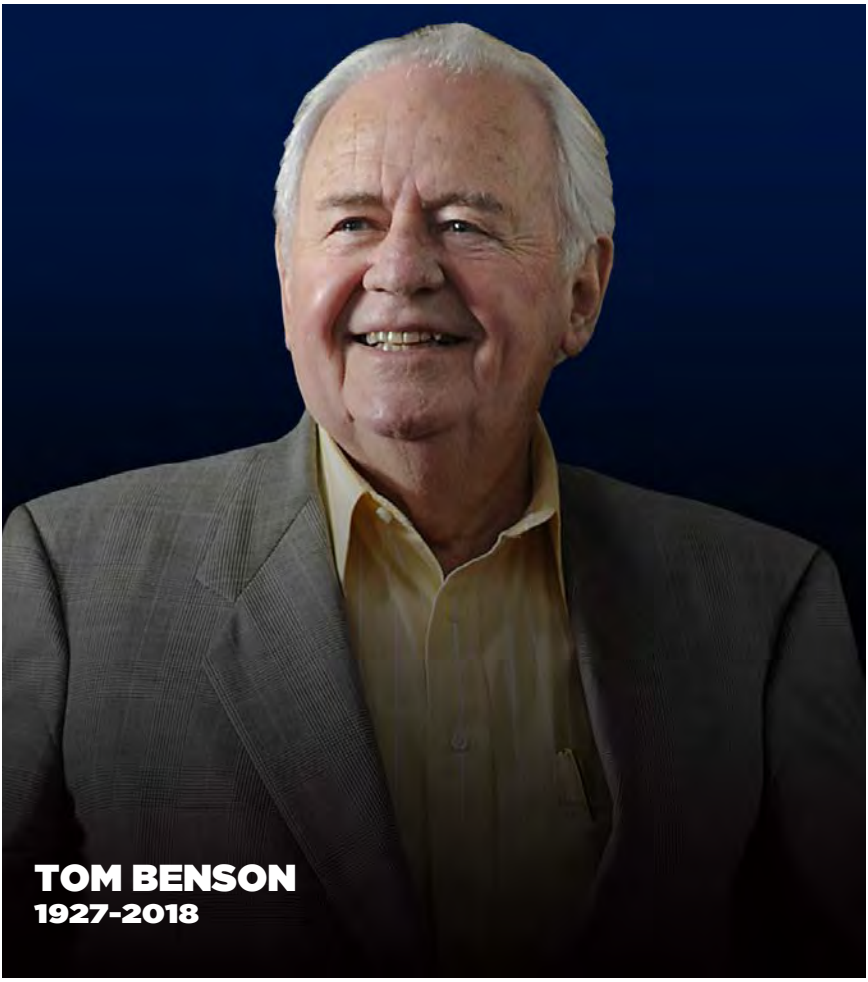
In 2000, Mrs. Benson worked with the Superdome on renovations to the iconic New Orleans landmark's third and fourth level public spaces, in addition to renovations on select suites. She also owned and developed a commercial real estate building on the corner of Laura and Octavia Streets, a women's clothing private enterprise called "Toujours la Ligne" and a designer's showroom called "Designers Resource" which served as a wholesale location for designers and architects seeking to purchase fabric, wall coverings and accessories. The Men of Fashion Committee recognized Mrs. Benson as one of the "Ten Best Dressed Women in New Orleans" in 1983.

In addition to her ownership of the Pelicans and Saints, Mrs. Benson established GMB Racing Stables in 2014 with an initial purchase of seven colts and hiring three veteran trainers, all with Louisiana ties. In 2016, two of the thoroughbreds, Mo Tom and Tom's Ready, participated in the Kentucky Derby. Another thoroughbred, Lone Sailor, ran in the 2018 Kentucky Derby and Preakness. She owns Benson Farm in Paris, Ky., a 1,000-acre farm with nearly 50 horses. As part of her passion for horse racing, she is a member of the esteemed Jockey Club of New York. Mrs. Benson also serves as Owner of seven automotive dealerships (Best Chevrolet, Cadillac of New Orleans, Mercedes-Benz of New Orleans, Mercedes-Benz Van Center, Mercedes-Benz of South Mississippi, Porsche New Orleans, Volkswagen of Mississippi, Infiniti of South Mississippi), three premier collision centers across Mississippi and Louisiana, Benson Tower, Benson Capital Partners, Corporate Realty and is also a co-owner of the Hyatt Regency New Orleans.

Mrs. Benson was born in New Orleans and grew up in the Old Algiers section of the city. She began her education in Catholic schools and in 1966 graduated from Martin Behrman High School in Algiers. She received a Doctorate of Letters from Notre Dame Seminary in 2014. Serving as keynote speaker at their respective commencement ceremonies, Mrs. Benson has been awarded honorary degrees from University of Holy Cross (2015), Southern University of New Orleans (2021), Delgado Community College (2022) and an Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters from Loyola University New Orleans (2019).

Mr. and Mrs. Benson married on October 29, 2004 at the Immaculate Conception Memorial Chapel.



In a career in business and professional sports that spanned over 70 years, Tom Benson was an endearing figure in his hometown of New Orleans as well as throughout the NBA and the NFL. Mr. Benson served as the owner of the New Orleans Pelicans since 2012 and the New Orleans Saints since 1985 until his death on March 15, 2018. He was survived by his wife Gayle.

In 2012 Mr. Benson purchased the Hornets franchise from the National Basketball Association, which was successfully rebranded as the Pelicans. The objectives in his ownership of the basketball team were the same as his stewardship of the Saints: to produce a team on-the-court that will compete for championships every year, while making a significant positive impact off-the-court in the community. Upon the ownership transfer, construction immediately started on a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility adjacent to the Saints practice fields, which now comprises the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, with the entire Pelicans organization being housed together for the first time in the franchise's history. Through agreements with the State of Louisiana upon the purchase of the Pelicans, the Smoothie King Center has undergone nearly a complete renovation since the 2012 purchase, featuring a new center-hung HD video scoreboard in 2015, along with several fan upgrades. On the court, after Mr. Benson inherited a team that finished with the worst record in the NBA's Western Conference in 2011-12, the Pelicans have built through a combination of the draft, free agent signings and trades to become a stable and successful organization.

Dennis Lauscha, a native New Orleanian, was named President of the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints in 2012. He serves as a representative for both clubs at NBA Board of Governors and NFL Owners Meetings.

Starting out his career as a C.P.A, Lauscha worked for a major global financial accounting firm before his decades long career with the Saints. He first joined the Saints in 1998 as Treasurer, and as a result of his hard work, loyalty and business acumen, Lauscha rose through the executive ranks to serve as Vice President, Senior Vice President and Executive Vice President before reaching his now esteemed post as President since 2012. In his role, he oversees the club's financial operations, government affairs, marketing, ticket and suite sales, legal, stadium, community affairs, human resources, business intelligence and information technology.

In addition to his duties with the Pelicans and Saints, the New Orleans native maintains multiple roles within Mrs. Benson's other holdings, including a role in the management of her regional automotive dealerships (Best Chevrolet, Cadillac of New Orleans, Infiniti of South Mississippi, Mercedes-Benz of New Orleans, Mercedes-Benz of South Mississippi, Mercedes-Benz Sprinter, Porsche New Orleans and Volkswagen of South Mississippi) and collision centers, Corporate Realty, GMB Racing, and Benson Capital Partners.

Lauscha's collaborative style, financial acumen and long-term view has played a key role in negotiating with the state of Louisiana on behalf of both the Pelicans and Saints. These negotiations resulted in long-term lease agreements, continuous improvements to playing and practice facilities, revitalization of the areas around them and revenue generated for the state without any new taxes for citizens.

In 2009, Lauscha helped negotiate the partnership with the Louisiana Governor and a subsequent extension of the agreement that continues the Saints' long-term commitment to the state. The deal included the purchase and revival of the former New Orleans Centre, which has been transformed into Champions Square and the Benson Tower property adjacent to the Caesars Superdome, with the stadium undergoing extensive renovations and improvements. Since playing a key role in Mr. and Mrs. Benson's purchase of the Pelicans in 2012, Lauscha has helped broker agreements with the state to upgrade the team's playing and practice facilities. Following successful negotiations, the Pelicans have a long-term commitment to the state, and the Smoothie King Center has undergone over $50 million in renovations and improvements.

In 2015, Lauscha helped negotiate an agreement with the state that resulted in $40 million in enhancements for fans of both clubs. The Caesars Superdome debuted new state-of-the-art video boards in 2016 in addition to renovated suites and other fan amenities, while a new center-hung HD video scoreboard was installed in the Smoothie King Center for the 2015-16 Pelicans season.

Most recently, Lauscha brokered a $560 million agreement with the state that will result in a long-term lease extension for the Saints and a transformation of the Caesars Superdome.

Lauscha was instrumental in the 2003 expansion of the Saints training facility. He later oversaw a renovation and expansion of the facilities and administrative offices for the Pelicans and Saints from 2012-13, while directing the construction of a basketball practice facility. The clubs are now housed on the same site, featuring some of the top facilities in professional sports. In July of 2017, Lauscha played a key role in the facilitation of a multi-year naming rights agreement for the entire campus on Airline Drive, renaming it the Ochsner Sports Performance Center. The clubs are now housed on the same site and feature some of the top facilities in professional sports.

Lauscha has remained committed to attracting major sporting events to New Orleans. He is a key member of the team that actively pursues future NBA All-Star Games, Super Bowls and NCAA Basketball Final Four Championships for New Orleans – and was instrumental in landing Super Bowl XLVII, which was played in 2013, and Super Bowl LIX to be played at the Caesars Superdome in February, 2025, which was awarded by the NFL in 2018. After Mr. and Mrs. Bensons' 2012 purchase of the Pelicans, the city has hosted NBA All-Star Games in 2014 and 2017.

Active throughout sports and the community, Lauscha currently serves as a member of the Business Council of New Orleans & the River Region, as a board member of the Audubon Nature Institute, Loyola University New Orleans, Greater New Orleans Foundation and is a part of the Board of Tulane. Through Lauscha's dealings with the Pelicans and Saints, state officials and local organizations have provided an opportunity for community involvement. His professional and charitable work was recognized by New Orleans CityBusiness, when he was selected as one of the 40 Most Influential Members of the Community. The honor is bestowed on those who are laying the groundwork for a better city. In 2010, he was named the Alumnus of the Year by Loyola's College of Business and was named to the 2010 Class of Role Models by the Young Leadership Council. SR. VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES

As Senior Vice President of Sales of the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints, Michael Stanfield is a key member of the front office for both clubs. The long-time sports administrative executive is responsible for overseeing all revenue generation for both the Pelicans and Saints.

Entering his 14th season with the Pelicans and 26th with the Saints, Stanfield is responsible for all of both clubs' sales efforts: overseeing season ticket sales, group tickets, floor seats and corporate partnerships, developing sales executives, supervising leases for the Smoothie King Center and Caesars Superdome luxury suites, as well as managing food and beverage on gamedays for both teams. Stanfield also oversees the clubs' high standards for customer service and retention.

Since taking over leadership of the Pelicans' ticket sales and merchandising efforts, the organization has seen an increase in season-ticket sales and merchandise sales that were the second-biggest growth in the NBA. In 2022-23, the Pelicans broke team records for group ticket sales. Stanfield has overseen a successful launch of ticket sales and corporate sponsorship for the Birmingham Squadron, the Pelicans' G League affiliate that made its debut in 2021.

Under Stanfield's direction, the Saints have surpassed the majority of the club's ticket sales milestones, including selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time in 2006 – a feat that has reached 19-straight seasons. Additionally, the club has leased every Caesars Superdome suite since the beginning of the 2008 campaign. In 2021, 12 field level suites, sold out by Stanfield's staff, made a successful debut. Stanfield also supervises the ticket, suite sales and box office personnel on a daily basis, in addition to serving as the food and beverage service liaison.

Since Stanfield's arrival in 2000, the Saints have sold out every contest in New Orleans but one. Prior to the 2006 season, an innovative season-ticket marketing program fueled the rise of filling the stadium on a season-ticket basis. Fans on all economic levels were reached in an effort to retain existing accounts while cultivating new ones.

In his tenure with the Saints and Pelicans, Stanfield and his staff have provided elite service and value to all team partners and staff. They have maintained top performance across both leagues in all key categories while continuously developing top-tier sales personnel. Both clubs have also embraced numerous innovative practices, including AI-driven strategies, to enhance sales and drive growth.

In 2018 and 2019, the Saints were ranked first in Overall Gameday Satisfaction by the league, based on the NFL's Observation Program and third-party Expert Review Audits of all 32 clubs across eight categories. Under his leadership, the Saints have consistently ranked in the top eight in the NFL's customer service rankings. In 2020 and 2021, Stanfield empowered his staff to respond to the challenges of providing the safest and most pleasurable fan experience possible during the COVID-19 pandemic. In the annual league audits, the Saints have ranked among league leaders in categories such as safety, security and mobile ticketing based on recent successful adjustments. The Pelicans continuously rank among the top of the NBA in season ticket holder satisfaction in league-commissioned surveys, due in large part to the group's emphasis on culture and team spirit. Stanfield's sales groups serve as a training ground for developing and producing successful salespeople throughout the world of sports.

While making fan experience a top priority, Stanfield has also been deeply involved in the extension and expansion of the already sizable corporate sponsorship base for both clubs, providing platforms for companies across the Gulf South and beyond to use the Pelicans to further their own business objectives. In recent years, Stanfield has directed the extension of long-term agreements with numerous valued partners like Caesars Entertainment, Cox Communications, Entergy and Verizon, as well as the expansion of the Ochsner Health System partnership to include naming rights for the Ochsner Sports Performance Center. In 2021, Stanfield and his staff finalized a ground-breaking 20-year naming rights deal for the Saints' iconic stadium with Caesars Entertainment.
A graduate of St. Leo (Fla.) University, Stanfield started his career in sports in 1988, working in minor league soccer, minor league hockey, minor league baseball, the MLB and the NBA. Stanfield served as the assistant general manager of the Clinton (Iowa), Class A minor league baseball team and attained impressive sales results. Before joining the Saints, Stanfield gained valuable sales experience with several major sports organizations, including the Florida Marlins, New York Yankees, Miami Heat, and Detroit Tigers.

TROY WEAVER

Prior to his time in Washington, Weaver served four seasons as General Manager of the Detroit Pistons from 2020-2024, overseeing all of the organization's basketball operations.

Weaver started his tenure in Detroit at the beginning of the 2020-21 season, completely overhauling the roster and building one of the strongest collections of young talent in the NBA. In his first draft, he selected a key building block with the first-round pick of Isaiah Stewart. The Pistons won the NBA Draft Lottery in 2021 and with the No. 1 selection, the club selected Oklahoma State's Cade Cunningham. Equally positioned to add more talent to the roster in the 2022 NBA Draft, Weaver selected Purdue guard Jaden Ivey with the No. 5 pick and executed another key draft day trade to select Memphis big-man Jalen Duren at No. 13. In the 2023 NBA Draft, Weaver added another strong draft class in Ausar Thompson (5th overall pick in the 2023 NBA Draft) and guard Marcus Sasser (25th overall pick in the 2023 NBA Draft).

Prior to his time in Detroit, Weaver was a critical part of the Oklahoma City Thunder's success for more than a decade, spending 12 seasons with OKC, including his last three-plus seasons as the club's Vice President of Basketball Operations. Previously, he served eight seasons as Vice President/Assistant General Manager with responsibilities that included coordinating player-personnel matters, NBA Draft preparation, free agency planning and summer league roster construction.

Weaver joined the Thunder in May 2008 and was tasked with helping to develop the roster and assist in day-to-day basketball operations for the organization. Despite losing superstars James Harden (2012), Kevin Durant (2016), Paul George (2019) and Russell Westbrook (2019), Weaver and the Thunder front office made moves to retool its roster and remain competitive. They were able to acquire veteran point guard Chris Paul in the Westbrook deal and Shai Gilgeous-Alexander, who had a breakout 2019-20 season, as part of the George trade from the Clippers. The Thunder were also able to load up on future first-round draft picks as parts of those, and other, deals.

A seasoned NBA front office veteran, Weaver's NBA career began with the Utah Jazz where he was Head Scout from 2004-07. He was then promoted to Director of Player Personnel for the Jazz and held that position from 2007-08 before joining the Thunder.

FOLLOWING THE PELICANS

The New Orleans Pelicans and Gulf Coast Sports & Entertainment Network will begin their second year of bringing a variety of both home and road games into the homes of the Greater New Orleans area and Gulf South region. Gulf Coast Sports & Entertainment Network is scheduled to broadcast 80 regular season games, including 12 simultaneous broadcasts on WVUE - FOX 8. Joel Meyers (Play-by-Play), Antonio Daniels (Color Analyst) and Andrew Lopez (Sideline Reporter) return to the broadcast team. The broadcast team provides viewers with an engaging viewership experience through their dynamic commentary, seamlessly blending insightful analysis with passionate enthusiasm. Included will be a live 30-minute pre and post-game show, as well as additional programming.

The Gulf Coast Sports & Entertainment Network is now available in 14 markets throughout the Gulf South region – joining the previously announced markets in Louisiana (Alexandria, Baton Rouge, Lafayette, Lake Charles, Monroe, New Orleans, and Shreveport); Mississippi (Biloxi, Hattiesburg, Jackson, and Meridian); and Alabama (Mobile). The distribution agreement with Gray Media now makes Pelicans games available to nearly 10.4 million viewers throughout the Gulf South. Games will be accessible via an over-the-air antenna or a local cable or satellite provider that carries the Gulf Coast Sports & Entertainment Network. WVUE-TV and Gray Media announced this year that DIRECTV will now offer the Gulf Coast Sports & Entertainment Network (GCSEN), bringing New Orleans Pelicans games to DIRECTV subscribers within the 14 television markets where the GCSEN is available.

GLOBAL LOGO

SECONDARY LOGOS

"BIRD-DE-LIS"
Incorporates pelican, fleur-de-lis and crescent basketball.

CIRCULAR
Incorporates cultural reference to "Crescent City" more formally and includes fleur-de-lis and crescent basketball.

Wordmark
Inspired by French Quarter street signs.

Fleur-De-Lis
A most notable symbol of New Orleans, the Fleur-de-lis is also represented within the primary and secondary marks. Its roots lie within its French origin and the deep cultural heritage of our city and is thus displayed on the city's flag. The mark, however, came to mean much more after Hurricane Katrina devastated the region, and came to symbolize the heart and resolve of the city.

Crescent Basketball
Coined the "Crescent City" in 1835, New Orleans derived its popular nickname as it was established along the semi-circle bend of the Mississippi River. The crescent shape is thereby represented in several of the marks.

Primary – Navy
Representative of the state flag of Louisiana. Traditionally represents liberty (as in the City of New Orleans flag).

Secondary – Gold
The raucous embellishment and flourish that represents the spirited life of New Orleans. It's a color indicative of the city itself. It ties together this organization (shared color with the Saints), the rich and diverse history of the city and its culture of celebration. It's the color often found in the "crown" of pelicans and represented the championships we intend to win.

Tertiary – Red
Red signifies fraternity, one blood or union, as with this team of players. It also represents the legend of the mother pelican pricking her own breast to feed her young in times of need, doing whatever it takes to endure. It's found on the throat of this powerful bird and provides a flash of intensity.

BIRMINGHAM SQUADRON

In 2017, The New Orleans Pelicans announced their intent to launch their own NBA G League team in a city near New Orleans to give the team the opportunity to develop its players closer to home. After conducting extensive research into markets across the Gulf South, Birmingham, Alabama emerged as the front runner. On October 24, 2018, the Pelicans, in conjunction with the NBA G League, formally announced that the Pelicans had purchased an NBA G League franchise to play at Legacy Arena in Birmingham at the conclusion of a $123 million renovation of the facility.

On Dec. 5, 2021, the Birmingham Squadron christened the newly-renovated arena against the Mexico City Capitanes and the team picked up its first home victory on Dec. 6, 2021, defeating the Capitanes 109-107.

In an effort to accelerate player development, as well as establish a presence in the NBA G League, the Pelicans' G League affiliate played temporarily in Erie, Pennsylvania for three seasons (2018-21) as the Erie Bayhawks. With Legacy Arena renovations scheduled to finish earlier than expected, the Birmingham Squadron was officially announced on July 26, 2021 as the Pelicans one-on-one NBA G League affiliate, set to begin play in November 2021.

"Bringing our G League team closer to home and to such a deserving city like Birmingham was of the utmost importance in deciding where to launch our new G League franchise," said Pelicans Governor Gayle Benson. "Our organization's vision is to grow the game of basketball in the Gulf South and we couldn't be more excited to bring the NBA to the amazing people of Birmingham. We look forward to being a part of the community for many years to come."

After careful deliberation, the name Squadron – synonymous with a flock of Pelicans – was chosen as a nod to the parent club. Also, the word Squadron is defined as a group that works together with a shared mission, representing the franchise's mission to develop NBA talent and bring championships to both Birmingham and New Orleans.

The Birmingham Squadron serve as a development ground for NBA talent as the Pelicans one-on-one affiliate in the NBA G League. Led by Joe Dumars, Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations, and Senior Vice President of Basketball Operations Troy Weaver, the Pelicans have full control of the Squadron roster and have the ability to move players between Pelicans and Squadron rosters when needed.

In its inaugural season, the Squadron reached the first-round of the NBA G League Playoffs before falling at home to the Texas Legends.
Head coach Joe Barrer enters his third season with the Squadron and his first at the helm. Before being named head coach in September, Barrer served as an assistant under former head coach T.J. Saint, where he helped 12 Squadron players earn Gatorade Call-Ups over the past two seasons. Prior to joining the Squadron in 2023, Barrer spent two seasons as head coach of the Lakeland (now Osceola) Magic, the NBA G League affiliate of the Orlando Magic. He was promoted to head coach after serving in both assistant and associate head coach roles for four seasons. The Saint Ambrose graduate also has experience as an assistant coach with the Iowa Energy (now Wolves), Bethel University, and Truman State University. Barrer served as head coach at Assumption High School in Davenport, Iowa for five seasons after beginning his coaching career at George Mason as director of basketball operations, during which time the Patriots advanced to the 2006 Final Four.
In its three seasons, the Squadron have had 19 Gatorade Call-Ups by eight different NBA teams, including six last season.

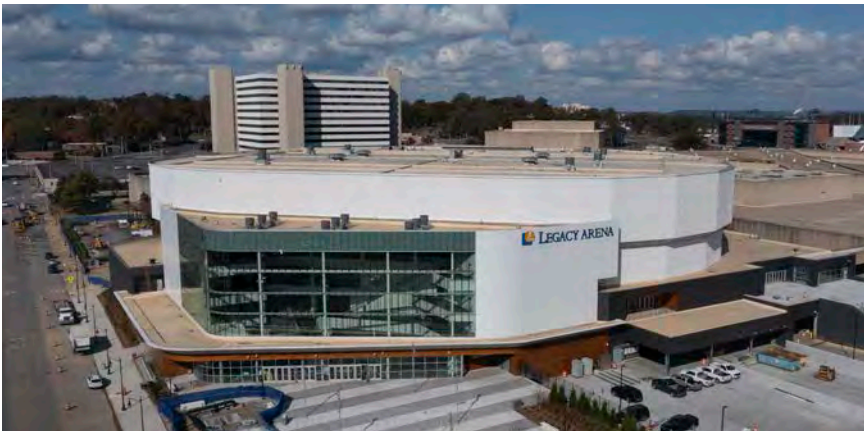
LEGACY ARENA



Legacy Arena at the BJCC serves as the permanent home of the Birmingham Squadron as the team enters its fifth season in the Magic City. Originally constructed in 1976, the arena underwent a $123 million renovation in 2021 and now seats 15,486 for basketball and 19,000 for concerts.

The renovations included massive updates to both the interior and exterior of the arena, most noticeably a new atrium at the 19th Street entrance featuring a beautiful steel-and-glass façade. On the interior, the renovation created new premium seating options, improved concourses and luxury suites.

"Legacy Arena gives us the opportunity to entertain our fans in one of, if not the best, arenas in the NBA G League," said Squadron general manager Leslie Claybrook. "We could not ask for a better place for our players to showcase their skills and for our fans to cheer them on. With its renovations, Legacy Arena is now a premier destination for sports in the Southeast."

Legacy Arena is the largest multipurpose arena in the state of Alabama and has hosted a wide variety of events in its past, from sporting events like NCAA March Madness to legendary concerts by artists like Michael Jackson. From a basketball standpoint, the arena has hosted four SEC basketball tournaments, three Conference USA tournaments, and 11 NCAA Tournaments on both the men's and women's sides. The 2024-25 NCAA Women's March Madness Sweet Sixteen and Elite Eight is scheduled to be hosted at Legacy Arena.

The Pelicans played in front of a sold-out crowd of 15,486 at Legacy Arena when the team played the Atlanta Hawks in a preseason contest on Oct. 14, 2022.

The arena is the third-largest in the G League and the largest of teams located in the United States that do not play in a full-time NBA arena.
Legacy Arena hosts 24 Birmingham Squadron games this season beginning with the season-opener on Friday, Nov. 7 against the Austin Spurs.

COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

The New Orleans Pelicans community efforts are centered on supporting our region's community members through a variation of programs focusing on education, youth sports, health & wellness, civic engagement, environmental responsibility, and support to military members and veterans.

In conjunction with our community and corporate partners, the Pelicans continue to execute several core outreach programs that positively impact and inspire the lives of individuals in our community.

PELICANS YOUTH BASKETBALL DEVELOPMENT

Jr. Pelicans Leagues:
This year marks the fourth season of our Jr. Pelicans Leagues program. Jr. Pelicans Leagues are part of a wider network of Jr. NBA/Jr. WNBA Leagues, which allow every youth athlete the opportunity to develop fundamental basketball skills and learn the core values of the game in a fun, positive and inclusive environment. RCX Sports serves as the official operating partner for Jr. NBA/Jr. WNBA Leagues nationwide. Currently, we have league operators in almost (20) different parishes/counties throughout Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. Youth are also highlighted for their academic achievement through our Jr. Pelicans League Scholars program presented by Ochsner Children's Hospital. Additionally, we host an annual Jr. NBA/Jr. WNBA Leagues Tournament that gives our youth athletes the opportunity to compete!

Jr. Pelicans Coach of the Year:
Every season, the Jr. NBA/Jr. WNBA Coach of the Year program celebrates youth basketball coaches who uphold the core values of the game – teamwork, respect, determination, and community – and inspires them to continue teaching the fundamentals of the game. The award is designed to recognize coaches who have made a lasting impact on boys and girls ages 14 yrs. and under in communities and schools around the world while positively influencing the overall youth basketball ecosystem, including players, coaches, parents, and referees. Each spring, in alignment with the Jr. NBA/Jr. WNBA, candidates are nominated to be selected as the Jr. Pelicans Community Coach of the Year and Jr. Pelicans Scholastic Coach of the Year.

- 2025 Jr. Pelicans Scholastic COTY: Corey Watson (Langston Hughes Academy)

- 2025 Jr. Pelicans Community COTY: Justin Adams (Lee Road Recreation)

MISCELLANEOUS

Jr. Pelicans Statistician: Presented by Hancock Whitney
This Pelicans Youth Basketball Development Game Night program gives youth the opportunity to learn a different side of the game of basketball. Through the Jr. Pelicans Statistician experience, youth (10-14yrs.) track Pelicans player stats from the Media Press Box during Pelicans Home Games. Participating youth are visited by a Pelicans Analytics Professional to learn how stats can impact a team's game preparation and on-court success.

Jr. Pelicans 3pt Shootout:
The Jr. Pelicans 3pt Shootout program engages middle school girls and boys basketball teams (6th-8th Grade). We activate a preliminary contest at each participating school. The top boy and girl from each round qualifies to represent their school in our overall Jr. Pelicans 3pt Shootout Championship hosted on the Pelicans Courts at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center around NBA All-Star Break.

High School Girls Basketball 3v3 Showcase:
The New Orleans Pelicans activated their first ever High School Girls Basketball 3v3 Showcase, in alignment with the Jr. Pelicans' WNBA Initiative. The event took place on the courts at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center and hosted various select and non-select schools from varying parishes. The competition included a 3v3 Tournament, as well as three different team challenges (Skills Challenge, Free Throw Contest and 3pt Shootout). Each competition crowned a winning school for the respective challenge.

MISCELLANEOUS

Junior Training Camps: presented by Smoothie King
New Orleans Pelicans Junior Training Camps are presented by Smoothie King and serve as our longest tenured youth basketball program. JTCs run throughout the year and focus on the development of the youth athlete through a variety of fundamental drills that help them learn the game of basketball. Through this program, we also promote sportsmanship, encouragement, and the importance of living a healthy and active lifestyle to schools and summer camps in our surrounding communities.

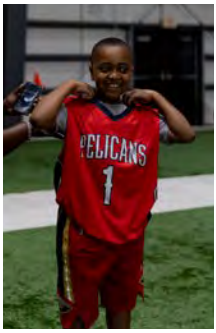
PELICANS IN THE COMMUNITY

Reading Rally:
Targeting elementary school students, a Pelicans Reading Rally encourages literacy and promotes the importance of education via basketball-themed activities designed to strengthen comprehension and spark excitement around reading. The event also features a book fair where each child selects three new books to take home, as well as the donation of a "traveling library" to the school. This program showcases the Pelicans' dedication to empowering children through education and reflects a long-standing investment in learning and community growth.

Health and STEM Day:
Health and STEM Day at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center combines physical activity with innovative learning. The attending youth engage in interactive stations centered on focused on fitness, science, and technology. They also enjoy exploring through hands-on experiments, testing their athletic skills, and learning how health and STEM intersect in exciting ways. The event provides access to new ideas and experiences, encouraging curiosity while promoting lifelong healthy habits.

MISCELLANEOUS

Fit Fest:
Fit Fest is an annual celebration of children's fitness hosted at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center. Campers from Ochsner's summer camp programs come together for a day filled with energy, excitement, and friendly competition. Activities include obstacle courses, cornhole challenges, and relay races designed to test skills and encourage teamwork. The event highlights the Pelicans' and Ochsner's shared commitment to health and wellness, giving local youth a chance to stay active, build confidence, and experience the joy of movement in a fun, supportive environment.



Ochsner Children's Hospital Visits:
Pelicans players visit young patients and their families at Ochsner Children's Hospital during the season to bring a little joyful moment to their day. As a cornerstone of the Pelicans' partnership with Ochsner Health, these visits provide comfort and encouragement during challenging times. Amidst the goodie bags and plenty of smiles, the true highlight of the interactions is the hope and positivity players bring as they create the personal connections with the patients.

Seasoned Citizen Socials:
The Pelicans proudly host Seasoned Citizen Socials as a way to celebrate and connect with seniors in the community. These group gatherings feature activities such as painting, interactive games, dance sessions and storytelling moments that foster friendship and fun. Beyond entertainment, the socials create a sense of belonging and appreciation which helps to reaffirm the Pelicans mission to enrich lives of our Gulf South community members across all generations.

Thanksgiving Meal Distribution:
Alongside Pelicans partner, Ibotta, Pelicans players provide tote bags filled with the makings of a traditional Thanksgiving meal to underserved seniors and families, complete with a turkey and all the fixings for the families to enjoy. By combining essential support with meaningful interactions, this program embodies the Pelicans' commitment to fighting food insecurity and uplifting families across the Gulf South region.

MISCELLANEOUS

Community Revitalization Projects:
In partnership with NewAge Products and Rebuilding Together New Orleans, the Pelicans work to revitalize and transform everyday spaces into places that bring our community members together. One of the notable projects was the revitalization of a community garden in the St. Roch neighborhood which included the installation of a state-of-the-art, full-sized outdoor kitchen. The project created a sustainable hub for community connection with a welcoming space where neighbors can cook, gather, and grow together.

CRCL Oyster Recycling:
The Pelicans, Southern Quality Ford, and the Coalition to Restore Coastal Louisiana (CRCL) annually unite for oyster shell packaging events that directly support Louisiana's coastal restoration efforts. Volunteers shovel and bag oyster shells, preparing them for use in reef-building projects that protect and restore the state's fragile wetlands. The event also includes cleaning and recycling efforts, turning discarded shells into resources for the future. By investing time and energy into sustainability efforts, it showcases the commitment to protecting the region's environment while strengthening community pride and resilience.

Joint Day Of Service:
The Pelicans and Ochsner Health collaborate for a Joint Day of Service, dedicating their time to projects that uplift the Gulf South regional community. Staff members from both organizations work side by side, most recently supporting ARC of Greater New Orleans by repurposing Mardi Gras beads to create opportunities for individuals with intellectual disabilities. This day of service reflects the Pelicans' commitment to collaboration and volunteerism, while showing how teamwork off the court can bring meaningful change throughout our community.
